THIRTIETH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR 27 OCT 2019

Both men who went up to the temple to pray were good men. The Pharisee could rightly list his qualities but unfortunately he regarded himself as better than others. None of us can say before the Almighty that I am superior to anyone. The tax-collector stayed at the back. He was conscious before God that he was a sinner, but pleaded for mercy. He felt humble and unworthy before the greatness of the Almighty. Prayer is the raising of one's mind and heart to God. When we pray, do we speak from the heights of our pride and will, or out of the depths of a humble and contrite heart? Humility is the foundation of prayer. Pope Francis continually reminds us that God never tires of forgiving us, but that we tire of asking him for forgiveness. Let our prayer be: Kyrie eleison!: "Lord, have mercy!"
