TWENTY SEVENTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR 6 OCT 2019

With our confirmation candidates, in the midst of this materialistic secular world, we are being called to continue practising and professing our faith in God. It will not be easy. Being faithful is doing what God would have us do in the world even when we think our faith is incomplete and doesn't measure up. It is about trusting in God's faithfulness to us even when our faith is wavering. The disciples didn't need more faith, and neither do we. We are called to trust God and to acknowledge the faith we have been given. In following the way of Jesus it will move mountains. It is knowing that we are enough, that with the precious gifts we have been given we can serve God by being courageously at the service of all who are in need.

Through our Baptism you send us out to continue this mission among all peoples. Empower us by the gifts of the Holy Spirit to be courageous and enthusiastic in bearing witness to the Gospel, so that the mission entrusted to us, which is still far from completion, may bring life and light to the world.
